

Denizbank Pays the Retirement Salaries - July 2004

According to the agreement signed between Denizbank and Retirement Fund, the retired officials will be able to withdraw their salaries from the branches of Denizbank.

Denizbank, with 190 branches nationwide, offers the opportunities of its widespread branch network to the retired officials.

The cooperation between Denizbank and Retirement Fund has been realized to assist the retired officials in withdrawing their salaries easily and with a better service. To benefit from this cooperation, the retired officials should apply to the branches of Denizbank.

On the other hand, Denizbank will also enable the officials benefit from the other banking services such as credit card, credit deposit, retail loan.

About Denizbank

Denizbank, a member of Zorlu Group, took place among the leading banks of Turkey thanks to its stable and sound growth. Denizbank serves as DFS Group (Denizbank Financial Services Group) with its subsidiaries. DFS Group provides the financial services with a wide range under the same umbrella.

Under DFS Group, in addition to Denizbank with a widespread branch network of 190, there are 13 financial institutions serving in the financial area and the service sector, both in the domestic and foreign markets.

Aiming to be perfect in its fields of operations, DFS Group utilized the newest technology and distribution channels. Benefiting from the “collective wisdom” strategy of the management and the prudent banking approach, DFS Group provides the best quality service to its clients at international standards.

With its strong shareholder base and strong financial performance, DFS Group targets to be a leader in the financial arena both in Turkey and in the European Union, through its subsidiaries.